

Position Description

Position: Physical Education Teacher Junior School (Prep to Year 6) and Early Learning Centre

Position Status: Full-time, ongoing position

Classification: In accordance with the Presbyterian Ladies' College Teachers Agreement 2019-2021

Reports to: Head of Junior School. All positions in the College ultimately report to the Principal

Presbyterian Ladies' College

Presbyterian Ladies' College (PLC) Melbourne is a leading ELC-Year 12 Christian independent school for girls offering both the VCE and International Baccalaureate. PLC has an outstanding academic tradition, an international focus and strong pastoral and co-curricular programs focusing on encouraging leadership, service and life-long personal development and learning.

PLC seeks to appoint staff with the highest professional skills who can actively support the Christian teachings and ethos of the College. All staff must commit to a culture that supports and embraces Child Safe Standards.

Position Overview

The PLC Junior School curriculum is carefully designed to be engaging, innovative and to enable girls to excel. It is focused on building strong foundations in the classroom through literacy, numeracy, integrated studies and personal and social development. This is supplemented by a wide range of engaging programs in specialist areas of Music, French, Christian Education, ICT, Art, Science, Drama and Dance, Library and Physical Education, including swimming. Access to technology for students is both in the classroom and in the ICT centre.

Within the Junior School there are 23 classes and 50 staff, including class Teachers, specialists and support staff. There are 3 classes at each level from Preparatory to Year 4 and then 4 classes at Year 5 and Year 6. Small class sizes enable the learning of each girl to be monitored and extended. The approach to learning in the Junior School is further enhanced by the expansive, purpose-built facilities and open outdoor play and sporting spaces.

Child Safety Commitment

All students who attend Presbyterian Ladies' College Melbourne (PLC) have a right to feel and to be safe. The wellbeing and safety of all students in our care is our first priority and we have zero tolerance to child abuse. The protection of students is the responsibility of everyone who is employed at, or is engaged by, PLC in child-connected work. To ensure the safety and best interests of all students, we take into account the needs of those with an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander heritage, those from culturally and / or linguistically diverse backgrounds, and those with a disability.

Staff Obligation to Child Safety

All staff at Presbyterian Ladies' College Melbourne (PLC) take an active role, and are well informed of their obligations in relation to Child Safety under Ministerial Order No. 870 Child Safe Standards. The PLC Child Safety Commitment is incorporated into the School's employment cycle from recruitment and reference checking, to induction and a commitment to regular Professional Learning. All staff at PLC are required to sign a statement that they have read, understood and agree to abide by the PLC Child Safety Policy and the PLC Child Safety Staff Code of Conduct.

In attending to Child Safety all staff must:

- provide a safe and welcoming environment for all PLC students and any young people who visit PLC to engage in PLC approved activities
- promote the safety and wellbeing of children and young people to whom PLC provides services
- ensure that all interactions with students are positive and safe
- provide adequate care and supervision of all students, not only on the campus but whenever students are involved in PLC approved activities
- act as a positive role model at all times for students
- report any suspicions, concerns, allegations or disclosures of alleged abuse to a Child Safety Officer
- maintain valid VIT or WWCC (Employee) documentation
- report to the Principal any criminal charges or convictions received during the course of employment or volunteering that may indicate a possible risk to children and young people, including any such charges or convictions prior to employment

Health, Safety and Wellbeing Commitment

Presbyterian Ladies' College (PLC) is committed to providing a safe workplace and learning environment that supports and enhances the health and wellbeing for students, staff, contractors, visitors and volunteers.

PLC will provide and maintain a working environment that is safe and free of risks to health so far as is reasonably practicable, comply with OHS Legislation as a minimum standard, strive to fully integrate health and safety in to all aspects of College activities, establish a leader-led positive safety culture, and continuously promote and improve its health and safety practices.

In attending to Health, Safety and Wellbeing all staff must:

- participate in OHS related induction and training
- adhere to Presbyterian Ladies' College's OHS policies and procedures
- comply with instructions given for the health and safety of themselves and of others, and adhere to safe work procedures
- actively participate in the development of risk assessment and / or job safety analysis, identifying, assessing and controlling hazards
- report all hazards, injuries, incidents and near misses via Wyse
- assist with workplace inspections
- cooperate with management in its fulfilment of its OHS legislative objectives
- take reasonable care to ensure their own health and safety and that of others, and to abide by their duty of care provided for in the legislation

Policy and Compliance Commitment

Staff Obligation to Privacy

All PLC staff gain access to private and confidential information in the course of their duties. PLC Staff are expected to share this information in a professional context within the PLC community. Any confidential information may not be shared with any person beyond those expectations.

In attending to policy and compliance all staff must:

- perform their duties in an ethical, lawful and safe manner, and adhere to the compliance obligations relevant to their position
- maintain current registrations and certifications, including compliance with standards and codes of conduct required by professional bodies
- participate in mandatory compliance training
- maintain a current knowledge of, and compliance with the College's policies
